New models for Sturgis?

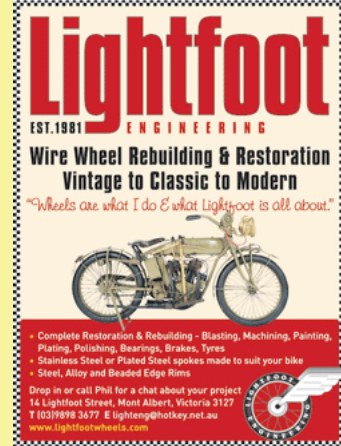

Indian parent company Polaris is saying it will be going with its biggest-ever display at the upcoming 72nd running of the Sturgis Rally in the USA early this August. Former race luminaries from the 1940s and fifties will be there, including 'wrecking crew' members Bill Tuman and Bobby Hill.

Will we see some new models? It seems doubtful, but you never know and it's not too late to buy tickets...send us some pix if you go.

3/4 of H-D riders like Indian

News Limited journalist Mark Hinchcliff recently interviewed Victory Australia exec Peter Harvey, who described the relationship between Victory and Indian as, "Indian will be like our Lexus, our premium brand."

While parent company Polaris is making most of its commercial inroads with ATVs, Victory is performing very well. Plus, Indian is showing huge promise.

"Our research shows 75 per cent of Harley-Davidson owners would buy an Indian," said Harvey.
